1st ANNOUNCEMENT AND CALL FOR PAPERS

DATES: 21-23 JUNE, 2022

VENUE: Newton Park Campus, Bath Spa University, UK
<https://www.bathspa.ac.uk/be-bath-spa/campuses/newton-park/>

ICET and the School of Education at Bath Spa University cordially invite educational researchers, practitioners and policy makers to submit abstracts/proposals for the ICET 64th World Assembly 2022. The Assembly, normally held each year, but this year postponed from 2019 due to the Covid-19 pandemic, welcomes scholars in the academic field of teacher education, representing views and research traditions from all parts of the world. The ICET World Assembly will take place in person in the historic and beautiful Newton Park Campus of Bath Spa University. Negotiations are ongoing for the possibility of limited virtual attendance and will be announced as soon as possible.

Call for Papers

The submission of abstracts is open to ICET members and non-members.

Oral paper presentations, symposia, posters and workshops are the formats of presentation at the ICET 2022 World Assembly. Presentations within the following themes are invited for presentation at the conference:

Guidelines and instructions:

Prospective participants are invited to submit abstracts of 300-500 words for one of the following presentation formats:

1. Original papers: oral presentation
2. Symposium papers: a series of 3+ papers with specific reference to one of the themes
3. Posters
4. Workshops

Please find a copy of the relevant form here. Only abstracts submitted on the prescribed form will be considered. These should be sent by email attachment to icet2022@bathspa.ac.uk.

There will be an opportunity to publish full papers in a series of journal special issues, linked to three of the sub-themes of the conference. Articles should comply with the advice and guidance below and meet the deadline for receipt in order to proceed through the double blind refereeing process. There will be further publishing opportunities for refereed articles that have not been selected for the special issues. Further information will be made available as soon as possible.

Submission Deadlines

Abstracts: 25th March, 2022

Acknowledgement of receipt of all abstracts: within three working days of the abstract having been received, an email will be sent to acknowledge receipt. The corresponding author will be provided with an abstract number that should be stated in all further correspondence.

Abstracts will be considered on a continual basis.

A detailed programme will be announced once it has been finalised.

Preliminary Programme:

- Monday, 20th June 2022: Board of Directors' Meeting, Dinner for Board
- Tuesday, 21st June 2022: Conference presentations, Welcome reception
- Wednesday, 22nd June 2022: Conference presentations, Gala Dinner
- Thursday, 23rd June, 2022: Paper presentations, Visit to Forest of Imagination

Forest of Imagination invites families, schools, the local community and ICET delegates to take part in a conversation about the importance of creativity, imagination and nature in our lives. During the ICET World Assembly, Forest of Imagination 2022 will be open at the egg theatre in Bath. This will be a 'Living Classroom', a Living Tree Mirror Maze, with art holding up a mirror to nature. The Living Tree Mirror Maze will come alive in the egg, inspiring creativity and imagination in everyone. You will be invited to explore your own reflections in nature in a fun-filled forest and magical mirror maze. The focus is on children and young people as stewards of the environment, taking action for a hopeful future and so has both pertinence and urgency for the engagement of teacher educators.
